Mario Party 5

June 24, 2005

6:23 am

Daniel woke up after a long night. He got up and rode his bicycle to school to investigate a green pipe. Daniel said out loud, to himself, "This shouldn't be too hard." One minute later, the pipe rose out of the wood chips, causing some major gusty winds. He wasn't able to see anything because the wood chips were so high. After everything stopped, he said, "I'm waiting." Five minutes later, all his friends arrived. Daniel said, "I need your help to defeat Bowser. You need to come on a voyage and find special colors. Here's what you need to find. You need to find special colored items and then fight a boss. After we fight the boss, the sky will light up and the nightmares will be gone. Daniel and all his friends started their voyage into the green pipe. After they fell on hard ground, the sky was purple and the ground was blue. They ran a couple miles away to a depot, which was really a time space continuum. Matthew, Delaney, and Danny were the first three people to go into the portal and when they came out, they were under blocks and toys. They looked at a sign that said the color things they needed to get. They went into a house made of dominoes and had to fight the domino king. Delaney was the only one to accept the challenge because she was so brave. Matthew and Danny decided that the domino king was too scary and they decided to pass. Delaney felt nervous that she had to fight him by herself. She beat the boss very quickly. She hit the dominos on his leg and all the house self-destructed. The dream lit up in the sky and all the nightmares were gone. When Delaney came out of the house, everyone applauded her and she felt victorious.

FUTURE DREAM

6:28 PM

Several hours went by for a decision to be made for who would go inside the wiggling portal. The decision was made at 6:28 pm. The people going in were Jelania, Michael Jackson, and Claudia. When they entered the portal, there was nothing but a futuristic land. Everything was made out of solid metal and Michael Jackson sensed that nothing good was coming. They saw a sign that said:

Color things that you need to find in the FUTURE DREAM:

Verde (green)

Bleu (blue)

Sagol (purple)

THE COLOR THINGS THAT YOU NEED TO GET IN TOY DREAM:

Vermelho
Oranje
Armarillo

Suddenly, Michael Jackson saw a shooting star and made a wish. His wish was “I wish I could change into anything.” Then he saw some futuristic guards. They looked like robots and they were doing a familiar dance, the robot dance. They were guarding the police station. They saw Michael Jackson, Jelania, and Claudia. They ran away and had to find a dead end to hide. They saw a sign that said “45145144,” which really meant dead end in English. They got to the dead end, when Michael Jackson started feeling really sick. All of a sudden he turned into a car! The robots came looking for them, but all they heard was beeping noises. Jelania and Claudia got onto the top of the car and it started moving all by itself. It was really Michael Jackson!

They drove around looking for all the color things they needed to find. They needed to find anything that was verde, bleu, and sagol. They found green jewels, levers and wheels. They found blue jewels and levers. They also found purple jewels. Once they found everything with the right colors, they had to fight the boss BROBOT L type. Before they fought BROBOT L Type, Michael Jackson turned into a giant robot. Jelania and Claudia's mouths popped open. They were so surprised! Michael Jackson yelled "NOOOOOOOO" in such a high pitch voice, it destroyed BROBOT L Type in one shot. The three of them escaped from the portal and Michael Jackson turned back to normal.

Sweet Dream

12:00 AM (MIDNIGHT)

It took six hours to decide who would go into the portal next. It was a very tough decision. The group decided to send in Logan, Mario and Luigi. When they went into the portal, they saw treats and goodies as far as the eye could see. They saw cake, candy, tootsie rolls, and much, much more. They saw a sign that said: COLOR THINGS YOU NEED TO FIND IN A SWEET DREAM:

PRETO

KARICHIVYI

After they saw the sign, they had to make their way to Cake Cave. They started eating their way through the Sweet Dream, until they got into a very dark box, which looked like a cave. They found Cake Cave! They found black candles, fondant, and icing. They found white candles and icing. They also found lots of brown candy, like Hershey's chocolate bars.

A few hours later they made it into the depths of Toffee Tower. They met Count Gingerbread Man. He was a mean Count. He saw them eat through Cake Cave and was mad that they found his secret passage. No one had ever eaten through Cake Cave before. Count Gingerbread Man was trying to destroy everything in the Sweet Dream. Logan, Mario and Luigi said “eat him to beat him!” A few hours later, they finished eating him.

When they exited the portal, it was about 3 in the morning.

Undersea Dream

3:29 am

The people who went into the portal next were Matthew A., Karissa B., and Rebecca C.H. They entered the portal about three in the morning. When they entered the portal, they saw that they were underwater. They saw a sign that said

COLOR THINGS THAT YOU NEED TO FIND IN UNDERSEA DREAM:

CIANO
DUNKELBLAU

Matthew, Karissa and Rebecca had to use snorkels to breath underwater. It was easy for them to breathe. They swam around for a few hours until they found stuff on the undersea floor. They found cyan shells, clams, and snorkels. They found blue fins and fossils and dark blue ice.

Next, they went into an undersea castle where Brucie, the No-Good Great White Jaws lived. It was a very tough battle so it took a few hours to complete. It was a tough battle because he was a very feisty shark. He was fast and flapped around a lot. He also tried to bite them. Finally they defeated him. They decontaminated Brucie’s skin and left his bones to turn into a complete fossil.

When they came out of the portal, they were very wet and damp because they had been underwater for so long. They were all prune, but luckily they didn’t turn into dried fruit!

RAINBOW DREAM

6:51 am

Wario, Yoshi, and WaLuigi were next to go into the portal. When they exited the portal, they found a four-landed area of colors. They saw a sign that said:

COLOR THINGS THAT YOU NEED TO FIND IN RAINBOW DREAM:

ROOD
ORENJI
GUL
PRASEENO
AZUL
MORADO

Six hours later, they found all the color things in the local area.

They fought the Dead Eye Rainbow. The Dead Eye Rainbow was a no good doer. He was the president of the Rainbow Dream World and whatever he said, WaLuigi, Wario, and Yoshi had to do. He told them to take their clothes off. Yoshi was a dinosaur so he didn't have any clothes. They were very upset that they had to surrender their clothes (except for their undies). They had to dance to destroy him. Several hours of dancing later, Yoshi was doing his moonwalk king of pop dance, when Dead Eye Rainbow turned into powder.

When they exited the portal, they were completely exhausted. They were almost completely naked, except for their undies. Everyone saw them come out and Daniel said "What the...?! You're NUDE!!!"
